UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SENIOR MASTER SERGEANT GLEN S. JIMENEZ

Senior Master Sergeant Glen S. Jimenez is the Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) to the Chief Master Sergeant, 61st Mission Support Group, 61st Air Base Wing, Los Angeles AFB California, where he serves as Superintendent, Plans and Programs.

Glen S. Jimenez was born in La Puente, California, and is a 1986 graduate of Nogales High School in La Puente, California. He entered the Air Force in July 1986 and served until 1993. He transferred to the Air Force Reserve, and is currently working as the program manager for the Ability to Survive and Operate Training Program. His assignments include bases in Washington, Texas, Michigan, Georgia, and California where he served in support of Operations Noble Eagle, Enduring Freedom, and Infinite Justice. He also served overseas in Germany during Operations Desert Storm and Southern Watch and in the State of Qatar in support of Operations Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, and Global War on Terror. His background includes various duties as a security police officer, desk sergeant, patrolman, Unit Career Assistance Advisor and Noncommissioned Officer-in-Charge of the Commander Support Staff. Before assuming his current position, he served as the Assistant Inspector General, 452d Air Mobility Wing, March Air Reserve Base California.

Glen Jimenez is the Artistic Director/Founder of Kaleidoscope Theatre Ensemble (KTE), a non-profit theatre company dedicated: "To Educate and Entertain the community and particularly the children through the use of theatre and improvisation." KTE's goal is to instill positive values, nurture creativity, encourage individual expression and to provide a positive life affirming experience as an alternative to the drugs and violence faced by so many in our modern day society. He started this company to entertain and to use his creativity to help children learn about theatre and hopefully use it as an alternative to drugs and gangs. "Entertaining the World – One Play at a Time" is Glen's Vision for KTE and beyond.
